

SECOND GENERATION EXILES FROM THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR (1936-1939): SOURCES, THEORY AND METHODOLOGY.

Co-ordinator: Alicia Alted.

FRIDAY 29 MAY

LOCATION: Sala A. Edificio Humanidades-UNED. Paseo de Senda del Rey, 7. Ciudad Universitaria, Madrid.

9.30: Reception.

MORNING SESSION:

10.00: Approaching oral sources. Oral archives. (Padmini Broomfield, Oral historian).

11.30: Break

12.00: Methodological approaches to the study of second generations. The case of the children of refugees in Mexico (María Luisa Capella, Researcher and collaborator with the Cátedra Exilio, UNED).

13.00: A visit to the exhibition: Infancy, literature and the exile of 1939: Books from the collection of Ana Pelegrín

14.00: Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION:

15.30: A comparative analysis of the first and second generations' narratives of exile (Alicia Pozo, University of Southampton) and (Padmini Broomfield, Oral historian, Southampton)

17.00: Break

17.30: Refelctions on the experience of being a second-generation exile (Susana Sabín, University of Southampton)

19.00: Concluding discussion and end of workshop

ORGANIZERS:

The Exilio Network: Research into Refugees and other Migrations

WITH THE COLABORATION OF:

Departamento de Historia Contemporánea y Vicerrectorado de Relaciones Internacionales e Institucionales. UNED

For further information on the Exilio network:

http://www.soton.ac.uk/exilio/index_espanol.html