

We would like to thank all those involved in this evening's commemoration:

The Parkes Institute, University of Southampton, for organising the event, in particular Katie Power.

Southampton Solent University for hosting the event, especially Virginia
Adnan, Lauren Edwards, Phil Gibson, and Deb Lewis.

The Ian Karten Charitable Trust and Karten Outreach Fellows Chris Byrne and Jennie Lewis-Vidler

Southampton's Holocaust and Genocide Memorial Day Committee

Our contributors:

Andrew Barnett
Troy Chessman
Carol Cunio
Matt Fletcher
Phil Gibson
Les Harris
James Jordan
Georgia Keetch
Jon Lacey
Michael Mawle
Emmanuel Ngwa
Charlie Sharp
Shannon Shepard
Daniela Silva
Nicola Woodhead

Robert Taylor and Amanda Wood at Barton Peveril Sixth Form College, Simon Jones at Itchen College, and Fiona Staker at Stonehenge School.

Graham Cole, Katie Power, Chris Byrne, and Abaigh McKee

Special thanks to Walter Kammerling and William Bergman.

Displays and Stands: Jane from October Books, Ahmed Sasso MBE, Diverse
Community Engagement Officer (DCEO) for Hampshire Constabulary, Stash Kozlowski from the Southampton and Winchester Visitors Group, and Steve Sauibhs from the Southampton branch of 'Stand Up To Racism'.

Jane Austen Lecture Theatre
Southampton Solent University
Thursday 25th January 2018

UNIVERSITY OF
Southampton

Southampton
SOLENT
University

Holocaust and Genocide Memorial Day Programme

The programme has been organised by the Parkes Institute for the Study of Jewish/non-Jewish Relations

Welcome

Phil Gibson

Head of Student Services, Southampton Solent University

Councillor Les Harris

Mayor of Southampton

Talk

Dr Emmanuel Nwga

The talk will be followed by a Q&A with Dr Emmanuel Nwga, chaired by James Jordan, Karten Director of Outreach, Parkes Institute, University of Southampton.

Dr Emmanuel Nwga holds a PhD in International Comparative Criminal Law and Procedure (1997) and a PGCE (1998), both from the University of Southampton. He worked for many years as a Reviser in the Language Services Section of the former International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR).

The International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda was set up by the United Nations Security Council in its resolution 955 (1994) of 8 November 1994 for the "Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens responsible for =genocide and other such violations committed in the territory of neighbouring States, between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994".

Readings

Georgia Keetch and Jon Lacey, students at Itchen College.

Performance

What Will the Future Bring?

Based on the diary of Terezin diary of Gonda Redlich

Adapted and Directed by Matt Fletcher

Performed by Southampton Solent University BA (Hons) Performance students Troy Chessman, Sebastian Wrightson, Andrew Barnett, Charlie Sharp, Daniela Silva and Shannon Shepard.

Talk

Michael Mawle, member of the Southampton United Nations Association, will read an extract from the UNA's mission statement

Closing Remarks

Phil Gibson

Refreshments will be available directly after the event

There will also be an opportunity to view an accompanying exhibition, talk informally with those at the event, receive a memorial candle and take Holocaust Memorial Day Trust literature.

