

Spanish in Society (SiS-EES)

6th Biennial Conference of the International Association for the Study of Spanish in Society

30 March - 1 April 2017
Avenue Campus, University of Southampton

Programme

Supported by:

Thursday, March 30

11:00 – 14:00 Registration – Avenue Campus
14:00-15:15	Room: 65/1175 Opening remarks: Professor Clare Mar-Molinero, University of Southampton Plenary: Ideologies and language policies in science and higher education. Do we really want to adopt Trumpish monolingualism and monolithic thinking? Professor Rainer Enrique Hamel, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana (UAM), Mexico (*This session is sponsored by the Centre for Mexico-Southampton Collaboration(MeXsu), University of Southampton)
Paper presentations – Parallel sessions 1
	Room: 65/1175	Room: 65/1177
15:15-15:45	Nicola Bermingham Exploring ideologies of linguistic authority amongst Cape Verdean 'new speakers' in Galicia	Dale Koike and Jeffry Michno '¿Qué querí?' Shifting frames in Nicaraguan corner shop talk
15:45-16:00 - Tea/coffee

Paper presentations – Parallel sessions 2
	Room: 65/1175	Room: 65/1177
16:00-16:30	Anna Augustyniak Ideology and identity in migrants' perceptions of Basque	Patricia Granja-Falconi Fijación de artículos definidos en estudiantes de herencia/Fixing Definite Articles in Spanish Heritage Students
16:35-17:05	Kassie A. Cigliana Challenges to socialisation and language-learning in study abroad: Insights from US learners of Spanish in Spain	Alicia Cipria Neutral" Spanish: language ideology and salient phonetic characteristics
17:10-17:40	Taylor Chlapowski, Ramona Kreis, Nicole Tracy-Ventura, and Camilla Vásquez "El valenciano es el problema número uno": Language ideologies of residence abroad students in Spain	Raquel de Pedro Ricoy Indigenous activism and language ideologies in contemporary Peru
18:00 — Wine reception – North Corridor (sponsored by the Centre for Mexico-Southampton Collaboration(MeXsu), University of Southampton)
19:30 — Dinner (Blue room, Building 38/40, Highfield Campus)

Friday, March 31

Paper presentations – Parallel sessions 3
	Room : 65/1175	Room : 65/1177
9:30-10:00	Andrew F. Bradley Language ideologies as reflected in Catalan and Valencian 'Language and Literature' textbooks: ambiguities, circumlocutions and omissions	Muireann Prendergast Deconstructing Galtieri: A Study of Print Media Discourse on Argentina's Last Dictator, from 1982-1983
10:05-10:35	Víctor Corona Aprendiendo mecánica en formación profesional : una etnografía multisituada entre Lyon y Barcelona	Maria del Carmen Ramirez El ambiente Lingüístico de la Ciudad de Oaxaca: Prácticas, Políticas e Ideologías.
10:40-11:00 - Tea/coffee

Paper presentations – Parallel sessions 4

	Room : 65/1175	Room : 65/1177
11:00-11:30	Santiago Sánchez Moreano Actos de poder y de resistencia en las prácticas lingüísticas de los Quichuas de Cali (Colombia)	Rachel Showstack Standard language ideologies and linguistic legitimacy among Spanish Speakers in Kansas
11:35-12:05	Naomi Walls Language ideologies and identity in Chile's Italian Community	Michael Newman and Victor Corona Ethnogenesis of Latino identity in Barcelona
12:15-14:00	Lunch

Paper presentations – Parallel sessions 5

	Room : 65/1175	Room : 65/1177
14:00-14:30	Darren Paffey Spanish in London: the 'making of presence' in the linguistic landscape
14:35-15:05	Rosina Márquez Reiter Leveraging relational practices in diaspora: 'Dame una palanca y muevo el mundo'

15:10-15:40	Daniel Morales "Si me quedo aquí toda la noche, seguiré hablando español". Language ideologies and experiences of Latin American immigrants in London
15:45-16:15	Sonia Morán Panero 'Spanish as a global language: from obstacle to asset for Spanish speakers'	Benjamin Peter The revaluation of Andalusian via salient variables
16:20-16:45 - Tea/coffee
16:45-18:00	Room: 65/1175 Plenary: On the State of Nature in Language Ideologies Professor Kathryn Woolard, UC San Diego, California.
18:00 – 19:00	Book launch/Signing and wine reception – North Corridor, supported by October Books Kathryn Woolard Singular and Plural Ideologies of Linguistic Authority in 21st Century Catalonia , OUP
19:15	Taxis for the conference dinner at the La Baronia Mexican restaurant, Portswood, will depart from Avenue Campus

Saturday, April 1

9:30-11:00	Panel : Translanguaging practices amongst multilingual youth in Catalonia: emic explorations on language uses and language ideologies Room: 65/1175 1. Mireia Trenchs Parera and Angels Oliva: Researching on Translanguaging 2. Sonia Perello Bover: Perceptions on Translanguaging 3. Adriana Patino-Santos: Practices of plurilingual socialisation
11:00-11:15 - Tea/coffee
11:15-12:00	Biennial General meeting of SIS-EES
12:00-12:45	Round Table (and concluding remarks) Prof Enrique Hamel, Prof Kathryn Woolard, Prof Jennifer Jenkins, Prof Clare Mar-Molinero, Prof Marion Demossier (Chair)
13:00- 14:00	Lunch