

WP/3 Wellington Papers: India letter books

There are three series of letter books covering Wellington's activities in India from 1798 to 1805. The first two series contain copies of outgoing correspondence written in two sequences of volumes arranged in chronological order. The third series covers the period 1802-5. It consists of volumes of original correspondence, drafts and copy replies. The letters in this series are arranged by correspondent. They were probably bound up and numbered c.1805. The original numerical sequence of this third series of volumes has now been ordered into groups arranged by correspondent.
