
THE UNIVERSITIES'
CHINA COMMITTEE IN LONDON (UCCL)

Funding Support for Higher-level Chinese Studies

The Universities' China Committee in London gives grants:

- To UK-based scholars at doctoral (normally from the second year of their degree onward), postdoctoral, and faculty level working on, or studying, relevant subjects at UK universities who wish to undertake visits to China for specific research or lecture reasons;
- To Chinese scholars who seek to make research visits to the UK;
- For academic conferences and the promotion and teaching of Chinese and other Chinese studies in the UK.

For research visits, grants are given to cover flight and modest living expenses.
