Henry, first Earl Cowley, served as a diplomat at Vienna, The Hague, Stuttgart, Constantinople and Frankfurt. He was British ambassador at Paris from 1852 until 1867. Extracts from his papers are printed in The Paris embassy during the Second Empire. Selections from the papers of Henry Richard Charles Wellesley, first Earl Cowley, ambassador at Paris, 1852-1867 ed. F.A.Wellesley (London, 1928).

WP13/1/1      Diary of Henry Richard Charles Wellesley, second Baron Cowley, as British ambassador at Paris
3 Mar 1852 - 30 Apr 1852*
Volume of paper leaves

*The diary is not dated by year. The specimen entry for intercalating the days of the week with the days of the year printed at the beginning of the volume is for 1847. The manuscript records Easter Sunday as falling on 11 April, a date which is only appropriate to 1852 in the second half of the nineteenth century.
